

POLICY #10905
ABORIGINAL ART & ARTIFACTS – COMMUNITY RELATIONS

The Surrey Board of Education recognizes the educational, cultural, and ceremonial significance of the aboriginal art/artifacts in its possession. The board is committed to the safe care and custody of these items.

The board is also committed to ensuring that these items are accorded appropriate respect in terms of presentation and maintenance.

The board is further committed to engaging in thorough consultation with members of the Surrey and White Rock aboriginal community prior to the acquisition, relocation, removal or maintenance of aboriginal art or artifacts.
