Martial Arts

A big thank you to Brandon McKenney from Excel Martial Arts, Langley. The students had a great week, all broke a board and learned a lot of skills. We were really proud of them. If you are interested in more information, there are info cards at the office or please visit their website: <http://www.excelmartialarts.ca/langley>

PLAY YOUR PART 2019 By Right To Play

Play Your Part is a FREE schools initiative designed to unite students with their peers across the globe and empower them to change the world.

Developed and run by Right To Play, the initiative will educate students about the transformative power of play, encourage them to invoke their inner global citizen, and nurture their budding leadership potential.

Led by a Play Your Part facilitator, we provide resources and support for educators with clear tie-ins to various curricula and inclusive games for all ages.

Play Your Part's three stages are the Assembly, the Workshop, and the Challenge.
