

Sample Documents

The following are sample documents of the items that you are required at the time of your child/children's registration.

Proof of Citizenship: A passport is one of the few items that one is able to use as their proof of citizenship. Proof of your status in Canada is also required, such as your PR card, work permit, etc.

Proof of Birth: A Birth certificate, showing parents' name, family register, etc., also need to be shown during the registration process.

Education background can be shown by providing report cards from the last two years from your child's prior school.

Health documents, such as a BC Services card (shown to the left) or immunization records, and/or medical condition information also needs to be brought during the registration process.

Proof of residence can be shown by bringing in a utility bill or bank statement that displays your address (shown to the left) or a purchase or rental agreement.
