

The Urban Safari Rescue Society

has been rescuing exotic animals and educating students about the vast biodiversity of our earth for years.

We bring 14 to 16 animals to your classroom and teach students from Kindergarten to Grade 11 Biology classes about animals, the natural world, conservation, issues surrounding exotic animals, and much more. We can tailor the presentation to support the lesson plans you are teaching in a dynamic and memorable way.

EDUCATE

(604) 531-1100

INSPIRE

for more info. look up education tab: <http://www.urbansafari.ca>

or email: info@urbansafari.ca

some of the BC Curriculum - Big Ideas covered

Kindergarten science - animals have observable features

Science 1 - Living things features & behaviours that help them survive

Science 2 - All living things have a life cycle

Science 3 - Living things are diverse, can be grouped, and interact in their ecosystems

Science 4 - All living things and their environment are interdependent - organisms in ecosystems sense and respond to their environment

Science 5: Multicellular organisms have organ systems that enable them to survive and interact within their environment

- discounts for multiple presentations booked for the same day

"SD 36 receives a fee to facilitate the distribution of advertising from some community organizations and businesses. SD 36 does not accept responsibility or liability for the contents of any advertising and does not endorse an advertiser's services, goods or programs."